In the Skin of a Jihadist: Inside Islamic State’s Recruitment Networks

By Anna Erelle

HarperCollins Publishers, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 135 mm. Language: English. Brand New Book. Twenty year-old Melodie, a recent convert to Islam, meets the leader of an ISIS brigade on Facebook. In 48 hours he has fallen in love with her, calls her every hour, urges her to marry him, join him in Syria in a life of paradise - and join his jihad. She discovers how ISIS entraps ordinary people, like teenage girls from Bethnal Green. Anna Erelle is the undercover journalist behind Melodie. Created to investigate the powerful propaganda weapons of Islamic State, Melodie is soon sucked in by Bilel, right-hand man of the infamous Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi. An Iraqi for whose capture the US government has promised $10 million, al-Baghdadi is described by Time Magazine as the most dangerous man in the world and by himself as the caliph of Islamic State. Bilel shows off his jeep, his guns, his expensive watch. He boasts about the people he has just killed. With Bilel impatient for his future wife, Melodie embarks on her highly dangerous mission, which - at its ultimate stage - will go very wrong. Enticed into this lethal...
