When we say Muhammad had sex with 9 year old child, Muslims brush it away and bring all sorts of excuses to justify this shameful act. This is the answer which incidentally confirm each other?

deny them. The question is why so many followers of Muhammad would fabricate so many false hadithes about the age of Ayisha,

Muslims. If Ayesha was older i.e. 16 or 18 as some Muslims claim, she would have remembered the religion of her parents prior to becoming niece to the Holy Prophet. Yet that did not stop him to ask her hand even when she was only six years old.

Arabs were a primitive lot with little rules to abide. Yet they had some code of ethics that they honored scrupulously. For example,

Some Muslims claim that it was Abu Bakr who approached Muhammad asking him to marry his daughter. This is of course not true pedophilia and the most despicable people. The thought of an old man becoming aroused by a child is one of the most disturbing thoughts that makes us cringe as

When covering the life of the Prophet Muhammad, one of the most debatable topics is that of the age of his wife Aisha when the two married. Her alleged young age has been used in smear campaigns against the Prophet. The latest publication dealing with the topic is "Jewel of Medina" by journalist Sherry Jones - a novel on the life of Aisha. In the verses of the Quran that came at the same time, the age for marriage was mentioned and it was emphasized that children should be married when they come of age [7]. So, opposing a divine suggestion cannot be considered. Using the mentality of Umar, if intervention had been a matter of consideration here, the Prophet would surely have been warned in a coming revelation and a step would have been taken to resolve the issue. Narrated 'Aisha: (the wife of the Prophet) I never remembered my parents believing in any religion other than the true religion (i.e. Islam). If Ayesha was older i.e. 16 or 18 as some Muslims claim, she would have remembered the religion of her parents prior to becoming Muslims. Now someone may still claim that all these hadithes are lies. People are free to say whatever they want. Yet some Muslims deny them. The question is why so many followers of Muhammad would fabricate so many false hadithes about the age of Ayisha, which incidentally confirm each other? I can tell you why people would attribute false miracles to their prophet. Babis believe that Bab started to praise God as soon as he was born. There is a Hadith like that also about Muhammad.
